- Conrad Grebel UC Theological Studies course on "Baptism: Ecumenical Perspectives," taught by John Rempel, May 19-22, 25-29. The church of Christ can't agree whether infants can be baptized or only those who confess a personal faith. The biggest reason for this is that each side has a different view of the church. The goal of this course is to enter the dynamic of recent dialogues on these issues among Mennonites, Lutherans, and Catholics, listen deeply, criticize honestly, and learn from each other. Auditors are welcome. For more information, contact Birgit Moscinski, 519-885-0220 x24264, birgit.moscinski@uwaterloo.ca
- Community Housing Survey for Elmira - MennoHomes has just launched a survey to help assess the needs related to affordable housing in Elmira. We've partnered with other local agencies to create and distribute it and we are inviting Christian churches in and around Elmira to also participate. An online version of the survey can be found on our website: www.mennohomes.com .

- Do you have a passion for sewing or quilting and love to share your skills with others. MCC Ontario is seeking volunteers to run several sewing and quilting classes at 50 Kent. If you are interested please call Wendy Cotter at 519-745-8458 x 248 or go to mcccanada.ca/get-involved/serve/volunteer/sewing-quilting-teachers for more info.
- Mennonite Coalition for Refugee Support (MCRS) has focused on the growing need for support for the reunification of local refugee claimant families. Many families are split up due to war and conflict - one family member escapes, taking a dangerous path that will bring them to Canada. If their refugee claim is accepted they can begin the process of bringing their loved ones to safety. They are often separated for prolonged periods, due to policies that delay reunification. Sometimes they are forced to wait years to be reunited with their spouses and children, who may be in situations of danger or persecution. And children are the hardest hit. Learn more about how you can help - and do contact me if you have any queries, by telephone at 519-571-1912 ext. 4. Or via email at resourcedevelopment@mcrs.ca Thank you for your continued prayers and support.
- MCC urgently needs KIT BAGS: Please help us replenish our inventory. Use medium or lightweight fabric. Sewing instructions are available at mcco.ca/kits or by calling Wendy Cotter at 519-745-8458 ext 248. Come early for a bus tour of the local area and experience the diversity of the Aylmer area Low German Mennonite Communities' businesses, churches, schools and culture. Up close and personal with your guide, Abe Harms. The cost will be $10 per person.
- MCC Ontario Annual General Meeting Thursday, June 18 Sommerfeld Mennonite Church, Aylmer. 3:30 pm tour of the local Low German Community; 6-6:45 pm - Supper served (no charge, but advance registration is required); 7 pm - Worship, speakers and business meeting.

Mennonite World Conference

- Experience an Assembly Scattered event: The North American church is ready and eager to host you in their communities. Consider planning a few extra days, either before or after PA 2015 in Harrisburg, to see God at work at one of 15 Assembly Scattered locations. From the Pacific region's multi-cultural gateway of Los Angeles to the east coast historic city of Philadelphia, and from the far north in Anchorage, Alaska to the southern metropolis of Miami, Florida, the church is beckoning you. Experience firsthand the complexity of immigration issues at the Texas-Mexico border with the San Antonio Mennonite Church. Learn about Mennonite Brethren churches started in North Carolina during segregation in the south and their vibrant ministries in the mountain communities, or the work of churches in Central Kansas or Harrisonburg, VA.
